Who are the Friends?

We assist the Wescott Library in its mission to support lifelong learning for residents of all ages. We are volunteers who believe in the contribution that libraries make to our community.

Your Support Helps...

Book sale proceeds, membership fees and donations fund a variety of materials and activities, including:

- Activity centers in the children's area
- Annual Home School STEM program series
- Special library programs for youth and adults
- Support for the Summer Reading Discovery & other reading programs
- Early literacy materials
- Funding for scholarships through the Eagan Community Foundation
- Enhancement of library spaces
- Author events
- Book group kits
- iLab equipment
- Collection support
- STEM Kits
